

Auburn Theological Seminary,
The First Presbyterian Church of New York City and
The Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life present:

*Remembering
September 11th:
What is the Truth
That Has Been Revealed To Us?*

Tuesday, September 10, 2002. 7:00 to 9:00 PM.

First Presbyterian Church

12 West 12th Street (at 5th Avenue), New York City

3041 Broadway (at 121st St)
New York, NY 10027

*Remembering
September 11th:
What is the Truth
That Has Been Revealed To Us?*

Tuesday, September 10, 2002. 7:00 to 9:00 PM.

First Presbyterian Church

12 West 12th Street (at 5th Avenue), New York City

A year after the events of September 11th, we who have survived that day of terror are called to remember and give witness to what we have seen, and to answer the question: “What is the truth that has been revealed to us?” On this evening of commemoration, representatives from diverse vocations will reflect upon this question and give their accounts of the dilemmas and promise of American cultural and spiritual life.

This program is open to the public at no charge.

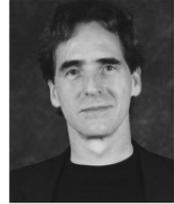

Featuring

JEAN BETHKE ELSHTAIN is the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Professor of Social and Political Ethics at the University of Chicago and a frequent commentator for The New Republic. She is a co-chair of the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life.

FRED DINGS is the author of two books of poetry, Eulogy For a Private Man and After the Solstice. His poems have appeared in numerous periodicals, including The New Yorker, The New Republic, The Paris Review and Poetry. Mr. Dings teaches in the MFA program at the University of South Carolina.

E.J. DIONNE, JR., is a columnist with The Washington Post and a senior fellow at The Brookings Institution. He is a co-chair of the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life.

JAMES A. FORBES is the senior minister of The Riverside Church. He is a part of the core teaching staff of Auburn Seminary. He has been named by Newsweek as one of the twelve most effective preachers in the English-speaking world.

AASMA A. KHAN is the co-founder and spokeswoman for Muslims Against Terrorism, an organization of young professionals dedicated to communicating the message that Islam neither endorses nor tutors terrorists. Ms. Khan is actively involved in interfaith outreach and education about Islam within the New York public schools, the tri-state area and beyond.

RABBI BURTON J. VISOTSKY is Professor and Nathan and Janet Appleman Chair in Midrash and Interreligious Studies at Jewish Theological Seminary. He has written many articles published in magazines around the world and worked on a PBS series with Bill Moyers entitled, "Genesis, A Living Conversation."

