(SDT) Pew Research Social and Demographic Trends

¹ In November 2011 and September 1995 the question was asked following a series of items on race and racial attitudes. In both July 1996 polls the question was asked in a list with other potential societal problems (E.g., violence, poverty, drug abuse, etc.). These surveys are shown in grayscale because the context of this question is different.

² In 2016, this question was asked only of those who had heard a lot/a little about the Black Lives Matter movement.
