WAVE 157 OCTOBER 2024
FINAL TOPLINE
OCTOBER 7-13, 2024
TOTAL N=5,273

Note: All numbers are percentages unless otherwise noted. Percentages less than 0.5% are replaced by an asterisk (*). Rows/columns may not total 100% due to rounding.

"No answer" includes web respondents who do not answer the question as well as telephone respondents who refuse to answer or who say they don't know how to answer. In cases where "not sure" was offered as an explicit option to web and telephone respondents, the "no answer" category includes only web skips and telephone refusals.

This survey was conducted primarily online, with some interviews conducted by live telephone. This topline shows the programming language for online administration. For details on how questions were slightly modified for phone administration, visit the questionnaire.

American Trends Panel surveys conducted between October 2016 and June 2024 were conducted fully online (with tablets and data plans provided to adults without home internet).

For this survey, please think only about the job you consider your primary job.

¹ All employed adults in the American Trends Panel were eligible to take this survey. However, for analytical purposes, only those who said they have one job or have multiple jobs but consider one to be their primary job are included in this topline. The 3% of workers who have multiple jobs and do not consider one to be their primary job or who did not provide an answer to the question about how many jobs they have are excluded from this analysis.

² In the 2024 survey, this question was asked to all employed adults with one job or primary job, regardless of whether it can be done from home. In the 2023, 2022 and 2020 surveys, this question was asked of those whose one job or primary job can be done from home. In order to compare results across surveys, the 2024 data shown here was filtered on those whose only job or primary job can be done from home.

³ In the 2022 and 2020 surveys, the question wording was "Looking ahead to when the coronavirus outbreak is over, if you had a choice, would you want to work from home...". The response options were the same.
